DAYBREAK

A world of news, shaped around you

SATURDAY, 17 OCTOBER 2026 | DEMO EDITION | EDITION NO. 1

CLIMATE

Pakistan Receives $1.2 Billion Green Climate Fund Commitment

International donors have pledged $1.2 billion to Pakistan's National Climate Adaptation Fund at COP proceedings, earmarked for flood-resilient infrastructure and renewable energy in Sindh and KPK.

Dawn · 17 October

TECHNOLOGY

TECHNOLOGY

Google DeepMind Publishes Benchmark Results for Next-Generation Reasoning Model

DeepMind's latest research report details benchmark results across mathematics, coding and multi-step reasoning tasks, showing measurable improvements over previous models on structured problem-solving.

TechCrunch · 5 min read

Open-Source Language Models Show Efficiency Gains, Narrowing Gap With Proprietary Systems

Ars Technica

CLIMATE

CLIMATE

Arctic Sea Ice Reaches Near-Record Low Extent This Summer, Scientists Report

Satellite measurements confirm Arctic sea ice extent fell to one of its five lowest recorded levels this summer. Researchers attribute the decline to a combination of long-term warming trends and regional weather patterns.

Carbon Brief · 4 min read

BUSINESS

BUSINESS

Global Semiconductor Supply Chain Sees Renewed Investment After Years of Shortage

Major chipmakers have announced combined capital expenditure exceeding $200 billion over three years as governments subsidise domestic manufacturing capacity to reduce geopolitical concentration risk.

Reuters Business · 3 min read

BUSINESS

IMF Staff Concludes Pakistan Article IV Review, Cites Stabilisation Progress

The International Monetary Fund has concluded its annual economic review of Pakistan, noting improvements in foreign exchange reserves and fiscal consolidation, while flagging energy sector circular debt as a remaining structural challenge.

Dawn · 3 min read

Pakistani Startups Raise Record Seed Funding Despite Global Slowdown

Dawn

SCIENCE

SCIENCE

NASA's Europa Clipper Returns First Calibration Images on Approach

The Europa Clipper spacecraft has transmitted its first calibration imagery as it continues its journey toward Jupiter's moon Europa, where it will investigate conditions that could be relevant to habitability.

NASA News · 3 min read

WORLD

Regional Diplomatic Talks Resume as Mediators Seek Ceasefire Framework

BBC News

SPORTS

SPORTS

Pakistan Tour of England Opens with Strong Batting Display in First ODI

Pakistan's batting line-up posted a competitive total in the opening One Day International of their England tour, with the middle order providing the platform after an early wicket in the first ten overs.

The Guardian Sport · 2 min read